

Written Expression Task-1

Time allocated: 25 minutes

Should school uniforms be mandatory?

INSTRUCTIONS

Your writing will be judged on:

- 25 minutes allowed you to plan, write and edit your writing.
- Interesting and unusual ideas, stories, descriptions, arguments, depending on the type of writing
- Language which is fluent and allows the reader to visualise exactly what the writer means using interesting and more complex sentence constructions, vocabulary and imagery
- A complete structure so that there is a progression through stages leading to a conclusion.

The amount you write is not as important as the quality of your writing.

Written Expression Task-2

Time allocated: 25 minutes

25 minutes allowed you to plan, write and edit your writing.

What you write can be imaginary or based on real events. You may write in the form of a story, a letter, a discussion or argument. Most importantly it should be short, lively, and interesting to read. Your writing will be assessed on what you have to say, how well you organise your thoughts, and how well you express yourself.

Write about something that happened or might have happened.

You can write about yourself and people you know, or about imaginary characters and events.

Your writing will be judged on the kind of situations, characters, events and feelings that you present and on how well you express yourself.
